

Engaging with M.E.

Links taken from the Professor Hooper 'Engaging with M.E.' DVD

Compiled by Jodi Bassett, May 2005

Information about purchasing this DVD at cost price (as well as further information about the DVD) is available at:

www.ahummingbirdsguide.com/dvd.htm

Recommended documents/books in the DVD include:

The letter by Malcolm Hooper arguing against somatisation theories of ME, in which he advocates for facing the facts and telling us the truth.

Another letter to the BMJ by Hooper.

The book Skewed by Martin J walker.

Somatic medicine abuses psychiatry and neglects causal research by Per Dalen

The Mental Health Movement: Persecution of Patients? by Professor Malcolm Hooper

The debate led by the Countess of Mar in the House of Lords about Myalgic Encephalomyelitis

What is ME? What is CFS? Information for Clinicians & Lawyers by Eileen Marshall, Margaret Williams & Professor Malcolm Hooper:

Canadian Expert Consensus Panel Clinical Case Definition for ME/CFS

Engaging with ME by Professor Malcolm Hooper

Simon Laurence's 25% ME group

Stephen Ralph of MEAction UK

The Clinical and Scientific Basis of Myalgic Encephalomyelitis--Chronic Fatigue Syndrome by Jay A. Goldstein (Editor), Byron M. Hyde (Editor), Nightingale Research Foundation (Corporate Author), P.H. Levine (Editor), P. H. Levine (Editor)*

*(Cheaper second-hand copies are also available through Amazon.)

John Richardson's Enteroviral and toxin mediated ME/CFS

CFS a biological approach edited by Patrick Englebienne and Kenny de Meirleir

Vance Spence Ph.D. and MERGE

From MERGE: Comparison of health status in three groups of patients who fulfil the specific CDC-1994 criteria for chronic fatigue syndrome

The book CFS, genes and infection. The eta-I/Op Paradigm, Roberto Patarca-Montero MD. Ph.D.

The DVD also recommends:

ME/CFS Politics in a Nutshell (UK) by Kevin Short and THE TRAVESTY OF SO-CALLED "M.E. TREATMENT" by John Sayer

For further papers by these authors:

There is a large selection of further writings by many of these authors (including Professor Hooper) available at www.ahummingbirdsguide.com/onlineresourcesauthors.htm

Please distribute this fantastic DVD (and just as importantly, the information contained within it) as widely as possible to help spread the truth about M.E. The systemic abuse and neglect of such a severely ill group of people has gone on for more than long enough.